SERBIANS REPORT CHECK OF VON MACKENSEN'S RIGHT WING

BATTLE WITH BAYONETS RAGED TWO DAYS IN BELGRADE

Desperate Fighting in Serbian City's Streets Before it Surrendered to the Invaders.

BUDAPEST, Oct. 11.—The Austrians and Germans encountered des perate resistance from the Serbiane at Beigrade before the capture of the city was completed. Describing these operations, the Ag Est say

"Our gain of ground and the breadth of our march toto Serbia con tinue to increase. Despite all efforts of the Serbians, in whose ranks are British officers, and who use British artillery, the river crossing has been accomplished according to the plan made.

The Austro-German armies which crossed the Danube and Save Rivers and occupied Belgrade are meeting with stubborn resistance at the Serbian advance defenses but have not yet come in contact with the main Herbian forces.

The Serbian plan of campaign depends considerably upon the amount of assitsance they will receive from allied trobps, but it is not believed that they will attempt to make a decided stand north of the mountain range near Kraguyevatz, which they already have proved to be a line offering superb facilities for defense. In addition to 300,000 soldiers, a million Serbians of both sexes and all ages are said to be ready to dispute all attempts at Austro-German-Bulgarian don, Paris, Rome, Petrograd and Nish to-day.
